

Lockdales' Auction #231 Report:

The Banknote Sale: 16th February 2023

Total prices realised: £134,713 (incl. prem.)

The market for banknotes remains strong, with particular interest in British, Irish, Asian, and Middle Eastern banknotes. Notes of the Arab states such as Iraq and Oman are some of the most in-demand, as well as Persia/Iran. There is also fierce competition for bulk lots and collections.

Our next Banknote Sale is scheduled for 13-14 June 2023, with consignment available until 4th May. You can find our banknote consultant Kevin Watmough at fairs or contact on 07854 464723 for consignment.

Lot 586: Persia 1 Toman 1st June 1918. Est. £100-£150, hammer £1150

Lot 596: Iraq ¼ Dinar 1931 (issued 1941). Est. £2500-£3000, hammer £4200